

PROCLAMATION

TERMINATION OF MAYOR DECLARED STATE OF EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, on January 24, 2026, a state of emergency was declared for the City of Hendersonville as a result of the National Weather Service having issued a Winter Storm Watch/Warning for the City, beginning on January 24, 2026; and

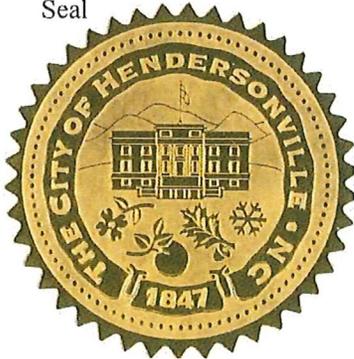

WHEREAS, Winter Storm Fern did arrive, resulting in downed trees, power outages and hazardous travel conditions for which the declaration of a state of emergency allowed the City of Hendersonville to take measures to address all of the foregoing conditions as necessary; and

WHEREAS, I, as Mayor have adjudged that conditions have now returned to a state of safety for which the declared state of emergency is not longer required;

NOW, THEREFORE, by the power vested in me by the State of North Carolina and pursuant to the City Code of Ordinances, Section 36-182, I, Barbara G. Volk, Mayor of the City of Hendersonville do hereby declare that the state of emergency placed into effect as of 8am on Saturday, January 24, 2026, shall expire at 6:00 p.m. today, January 27, 2026, and following such time, the proclamation declaring the state of emergency and all prior proclamations declaring a state of emergency shall also expire and have no force and effect. All prior restrictions (including the curfew) enacted by all prior state of emergency proclamations for the City of Hendersonville shall also expire and have no force and effect as of 6:00 p.m. today.

Done this 27th day of January, 2026.
